Overview

Your Everest Base Camp helicopter tour with a landing at Kala Patthar starts at Kathmandu. On your tour departure date, we will transfer you from your hotel to Tribhuvan International Airport early morning from where you will be boarding a helicopter.

As the helicopter heads east to Lukla, you will be enjoying the aerial views of Kathmandu valley and slowly you will start to get glorious views of snowcapped mountains, including Jugal Himal, Gaurishankar, and Langtang.

The helicopter will land for about 15 minutes at Lukla Airport for refueling, providing you time to enjoy the new landscape in the Everest region. Soon, your helicopter will take off and enter the skies above Sagarmatha National Park.

The helicopter then flies over Syangboche, Tengboche, Pheriche, Gorak Shep, the Everest Base Camp, Khumbu glacier, and lands at Kala Patthar, a popular viewpoint that provides breath-taking views of Everest, Nuptse, Changtse, Cho Oyu, Ama Dablam, Khumbutse, Changtse, Pumori and summit of Lhotse.

In rare cases, due to bad unforeseen bad weather, your helicopter might not land at Kala Patthar.

After enjoying the views from Kala Patthar, you will fly in your helicopter to Everest View Hotel at Syanboche for a delicious breakfast. After breakfast, your helicopter will take off and head to Lukla Airport, where it will refuel and then return back to Kathmandu.

The whole tour will last for around five hours.

Ideally, this is your schedule.

Trips Notes

Equipment Checklist

Since you will land at Kala Patthar (5,555m) and spend some time there, you must plan your clothing. Since the sunlight and UV rays are very strong at Kala Patthar, you need proper sunscreen and sun protection. The winds will be active in the afternoon, so prepare yourself with layers of clothing, including windproof jackets. You should also bring a down jacket, gloves, and a hat to face the high-altitude cold in case the weather turns cloudy.

- A bottle of water
- Toilet paper and other necessities
- Mobiles and cameras
- Windproof down jacket
- Warm trousers
- Sunhat and woolen cap
- Scarf
- Sunglasses/Goggles
- Sunscreen (preferably of SPF30+)
- Passport or passport copy
